The screenshot shows the Mind website's page for Sexual Abuse. At the top, there are navigation buttons: 'Talk to us', 'I need urgent help', and 'Donate'. A search bar with 'Custom Search' and a magnifying glass icon is on the right. The Mind logo, featuring a stylized brain and the text 'mind for better mental health', is on the left. Below the logo is a navigation menu with 'Information & support', 'About us', 'News & campaigns', 'Get involved', 'Workplace', and 'Shop'. A breadcrumb trail reads 'Home > Information & support > Guides to support and services > Abuse > Sexual abuse'. The main heading is 'Abuse', followed by the sub-heading 'Sexual abuse'. A short description states: 'Gives information that may help if you have experienced abuse.' Below this is a social media sharing bar. A left-hand navigation menu lists: 'About this resource', 'All types of abuse', 'Domestic violence', 'Sexual abuse' (highlighted in a blue box), 'Abuse by health and social care workers', and 'Considering counselling'. The main content area is titled 'Sexual abuse' and includes the text 'Sexual abuse — support for all' and 'HAVOCA (Help for Adult Victims of Child Abuse)'. It provides the website 'havoca.org' and a description: 'Provides information to any adult who is suffering from past childhood abuse. Website includes survivors' forum.' Below this is the 'LiFecentre' section, with contact details: 'PO Box 58, Chichester PO19 8UD', 'Freephone helpline: 0808 802 0808', 'Text helpline: 07717 989 022', and 'lifecentre.uk.com'. It describes 'Telephone counselling for survivors of sexual abuse and those supporting survivors. Also offers face-to-face counselling and art therapy groups in West Sussex.' At the bottom, it says 'One in four'.
